THE ELECTRIC ROAD.

MR. KENNEDY OF HOUSTON WAS HERE YESTERDAY.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING TONIGHT

Terms of Contract Practically Agreed Upon and Mr. Kennedy Will Have an Engineer Here Monday to Make Preliminary Survey

Mr. Edward Kennedy, promoter of the Bryan and College trolley line, visited Bryan between trains yesterday and met with the committee for an hour at the office of the First National Bank, all the members of the committee being present. The status of the enterprise was thoroughly discussed and Mr. Kennedy answered in a highly satisfactory manner every inquiry of the members of the committee made regarding the terms of the contract to be entered into. He manifested both frankness and liberality in the outline of the contract which was practically agreed upon, subject of course to the approval of all the stockholders.

The terms of contract as outlined are substantially as follows:

Sixty feet of right-of-way.

Twenty acres of land for power house plant located about midway between Bryan and College.

$15,000.00 stock subscription (already secured).

One half of stock subscribed to be paid when contract is signed, and the other half when grading is finished.

Company to be capitalized at $100,000.00 or more and to represent an equivalent value.

Franchise over designated streets within the city of Bryan and to supply lights for the public, but no contract to supply the city with lights to be required at this time.

Kennedy to put up ample security in stocks or real estate to guarantee the faithful performance and completion of his contract.

Engineer to be here Monday to run two or three preliminary surveys.

Mr. Kennedy further stated that the president of the company and a fair representation on the board of directors will be accorded to Bryan stockholders, and that he hoped to see them elect one of our best, most progressive and broad gauged citizens to the presidency. He said he fully believes in the enterprise and has from the first day he came here, and that if he did not he would not be giving his time to it. As above stated, he said that he would have an engineer here Monday to make two or three preliminary surveys, and that the route will be chosen along which the right-of-way can be secured. He will also furnish right-of-way deeds and a man to aid in securing the right-of-way. He expects to begin grading by November 15, and to receive tie shipments in January. If rails can be secured from a Texas road, as he hopes to do, he says the road can be built in six months; otherwise probably a year will be required. The grading, it is estimated will require about four months. He has placed orders for two cars of a capacity of fifty passengers each and one trailer.

Mr. Kennedy says the Milwaukee capitalists whom he has interested in the enterprise anticipate a considerable appreciation of the stock in the next two years. While in no sense, unduly enthusiastic, Mr. Kennedy is entirely confident of the successful outcome of the project, and his talk indicated that he is fully backed in this opinion by those whose money is behind him.

A meeting of those who have subscribed to trolley line stock is called tonight officially as follows:

THE CALL.

The subscribers to stock in the proposed trolley line to College are hereby called to meet at Carnegie Hall tonight, October 26, at eight o'clock to hear the report of the trolley committee, and to take such action on same as they may see fit.

Mishap Takes Place in the Property of the Cambria Steel Company
Not Far From Scene of Klondike Disaster.

Johnstown, Pa., Oct. 25.—An official statement given the Associated Press by the manager of the Cambria Steel company, says: "By an explosion in the rolling mill mine of the Cambria Steel company Wednesday afternoon, seven men are dead and two are painfully two are painfully, but not fatally injured. Up to the present only one of the dead has been identified. He is an American born miner, Sampson Luther. It is believed the other dead are all foreigners, as are the two injured. The wounds of the latter consist of burns on the face, back and arms lacerated, wounds of the scalp and other parts of the body."

"The explosion took place in heading No. 29, a considerable distance from the ill-fated Klondike section, where 174 men lost their lives over four years ago. The exact cause is not known, but it is supposed gas was fired by a blast. All the men had their safety lamps in proper trim, showing that the accident could not have been caused by neglect in that direction. No damage was done to the workings."

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

On Second Trial Man Sentenced to Hang Acquitted.

Natchez, Miss., Oct. 25.—Peter Mathison, a white man, convicted on the charge of murder last April and sentenced to hang May 7, and whose case was reversed and remanded by the supreme court, has been acquitted. The jury was out ten minutes. Mathison shot and killed A. C. Bidwell and B. Stephen Jones, white fishermen. Bidwell, who was intimate with Mrs. Mathison's mother, had kidnapped Mathison's four-year-old son. The Mathisons had separated on account of the life's misconduct, she having followed in the footsteps of her mother, and the court awarded the custody of the child to the father. Mathison attempted to regain possession of the child, but failed. His next move was to watch Bidwell's shanty boat. Bidwell saw him and was about to fire when Mathison shot and killed him. Jones ran out of the shanty boat and was killed while reaching for Bidwell's shotgun.

WRIT REFUSED.

Supreme Court Would Not Grant Mandamus Mays Asked.

Austin, Oct. 25.—The supreme court refused to award the writ of mandamus in the Mays-Hardy congressional contest from the Sixth district. This is a complete victory for Judge Rufus Hardy. The opinion of the court was written by Chief Justice Gaines and it is as follows:

"As we construe section 120 of the acts of the legislature known as the Terrell election law, it was the purpose of the legislature to devolve the duty of determining the validity of a party for a district office upon the convention called for that purpose and also to make it the duty of the chairman of that convention to certify the result. It appears from the allegations of the petition and the answer that the chairman of the convention called to make a nomination of a candidate for the office of a representative in congress for the Sixth congressional district has given his certificate as required by the section named, showing that Rufus Hardy was nominated. This, we think, is conclusive and that the Democratic executive committee for the district is without power to review that action. Whether the chairman of the convention acted properly or not is not for us to decide. Since we conclude that the relator has shown no right to be declared the nominee of the convention, a writ of mandamus should not be awarded in his favor."

Captain Hughes of the state rangers has returned from Oakhurst, where he had been the past week looking over the situation there. He says affairs are still in a ferment and trouble is liable to break out at any time. A force of rangers is still on the ground.

DECIDED DECREASE.

Report of Penitentiary Superintendent Submitted to the Governor.

Austin, Oct. 25.—The biennial report of Superintendent of Penitentiaries Baker has been received by the governor. He recommends the building of a cotton mill and binder twine plant at Huntsville and work all female convicts therein. He suggests an up-to-date sewerage system be put in at Rusk and that a new building be erected for supplies, and that present building be utilized to enlarge furniture factory. Also that the state employ a dentist to look after the teeth of convicts.

As to the prison population the report shows a decrease of 111 over the previous two years. The present population is composed of 32 per cent whites, 57 negroes, 10 Mexicans and some Indians. There is 1 per cent in the penitentiary out of every 767 inhabitants. Total pardons issued in two years were 189. There escaped 131, of which fifty-one were recaptured. There were 120 deaths.

Of the convicts delivered to the penitentiary during the past two years 2,239 were men and sixty-nine were women. Boys delivered to the state reformatory numbered 159.

PACKAGES SEIZED.

Contained Religious Pictures That Were Smuggled by Mail.

San Antonio, Oct. 25.—Deputy Collector of Customs Emmet Rountree seized two packages supposed to contain periodicals mailed at Winnipeg, Manitoba. They contained religious pictures which had been smuggled through the mails on the second-class mail rate. The pictures were sent by the publishers to religious people over the country, who are asked to sell them and send a percentage back. A lady here has sold hundreds of them. They are sold all over the country, and notice was given them held up at the Canadian line. The parties who received and sold them are not supposed to be guilty of smuggling under the circumstances. Pictures of noted Bible characters and "God Bless Our Home" mottoes make them up. There is a duty of 20 cents per pound on these.

PICKPOCKETS BUSY.

One Man Loses Large Amount and Other Passengers Robbed.

Dallas, Oct. 25.—Pickpockets are operating extensively on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas trains out of Dallas. On passenger train No. 204 a business man lost $800 in money and notes. Other passengers were relieved of various amounts. Three empty bookbags were found in seats. Two were made, but the parties were not.

BIG BUILDING BURNS.

Chamber of Commerce, a Lodging House, Consumed.

SEVERAL LIVES LOST

Thirty Families and Numerous Individuals Were Rescued and One Hero Perishes Trying to Save a Baby.

Kansas City, Kan., Oct. 25.—Fire started on the ground floor of the Chamber of Commerce building, a four-story structure, in the River View district, at an early hour this morning.

When the blaze broke out 200 people, families and lodgers, were asleep in the three upper stories. The walls were of brick and stone, but the floors and partitions were of wood. No register was kept and it is not known exactly how many persons were in the building.

At 8 o'clock the list of known dead was four, as follows: Robert Mason, a stonemason, burned in his room; the infant of John A. Sparks; John Lynch, driver of a sand wagon; D. B. Young, Lynch, with the Sparks baby in his arms, jumped from the second story, but fell into the ruins, and both perished.

An unknown baby was fatally injured by being dropped from the second story to a policeman, who failed to catch the little one. Arthur Childress, a policeman, was knocked from an ambulance by a wire and run over and seriously hurt. J. F. Branahan had both legs broken. Mrs. George A. Sparks had her face, neck and hands badly burned. The injured number about fifty.

The janitor said there were thirty families, numbering about 100 persons, in the building. All communication was cut off and the firemen had to rescue the inmates by ladders.

At 8 o'clock Charles Carlin, an engineer for the Nelson-Morris Packing company, ill with typhoid fever, and Mrs. J. W. Brigman and her two children, aged fifteen and twelve, had not been accounted for. George Melton, an invalid, and Mrs. Maud Winslow and three daughters were also missing.

MAKING GOOD TIME.

Anglo-American Arctic Expedition Has Been Heard From.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 25.—Letters have been received from the Anglo-American Arctic expedition, which left Victoria May 20 on the schooner Duchess of Bedford, dated from Port Hope on July 25. It had not been expected the schooner would reach this port before Aug. 15. From there the vessel was to proceed at once to Minto Inlet, Prince Albert Land, where winter quarters will be established.

The letters say that on July 8 the schooner had a narrow escape from going ashore in Behring straits during a heavy fog. While at Teller City Sailing Master Parker and the cook refused to do duty, and only, it is stated, when threatened with irons on the revenue cutter, did the return on board, and then only on condition that they be replaced at St. Lawrence Island. A good supply of dogs was secured for the ice trips at St. Lawrence Island. The ice is reported heavy this year, but the expedition is hopeful it can round the fringe and reach winter quarters at Prince Albert Land, where the schooner is to anchor and a camp be made ashore.

IN SIXTEENTH ROUND.

Joe Thomas, Champion Welterweight, Knocks Out Fitzpatrick.

San Francisco, Oct. 25.—Joe Thomas, the champion welterweight of the world, knocked out Dick Fitzpatrick of Chicago in the sixteenth round of a scheduled thirty-round contest at Colma. Thomas had it all his way and did all the work. The end came shortly after the opening of the sixteenth round, when Thomas landed a hard left to the jaw, staggering Fitzpatrick. The champion quickly shot over a right swing, putting his man to the floor for nine seconds. When Fitzpatrick arose he reeled another of the same class that put him out. Fitzpatrick showed that he is a clever blocker of blows, but he was unable to punish Thomas.

OVERTURES MADE.

St. Louis Syndicate Said to Be After All the Stock.

New York, Oct. 25.—Senor Don Jose Limantour, Mexican minister of finance, now in this city, said that his visit had nothing to do with the reported purchase of the Mexican Central railroad by the Mexican government. It is reported that the St. Louis syndicate, headed by H. Clay Pierce, which controls a majority of the stock, has made overtures to sell, but the government's attitude has thus far been passive.

Exceeded Contract Speed.

Rockland, Me., Oct. 25.—The battleship Minnesota exceeded her contract speed, her average being 18.869 knots. On the best run a speed of 19.412 knots was attained. The Louisiana on her acceptance trial last December averaged 18.61 knots an hour on her best five runs.

Pope Better.

Rome, Oct. 25.—Dr. Lapponi, the pope's physician, Thursday morning reported the patient's condition had improved. The swelling in his foot had almost disappeared, pains had ceased and temperature was normal. A British pilgrimage was received.

BOILED POTATOES.

Why They Should Always Be Cooked In Boiling Water.

Pare potatoes with a sharp vegetable knife just as thin as possible, for that part of the tuber lying close to the skin is richest in mineral salts, and put each potato as peeled into a pan of cold water to prevent discoloration. Have ready meanwhile a kettle of boiling water and when the peeling process is complete take the potatoes from the cold water and, covering them with boiling salted water, set them on the range, covered, to boil. Twenty minutes usually suffice, but to test them use a skewer or fork, and when they can be pierced easily remove at once from the fire, pour off all the water and set them on the back of the range, uncovered, to steam dry, assisting that process occasionally by a slight shaking of the kettle.

If one asks the reason why potatoes should always be cooked in boiling water try the following experiment for proof: Take two cups, in each of which has been put a teaspoonful of ordinary starch. Pour over one a quarter of a cupful of boiling water and over the other the same quantity of cold water and observe the result. The one over which the boiling water was poured stays in shape, a compact mass, while the one with the cold water dissolves into a soft paste. The potato is largely composed of starch, and from this trial any one may draw his own conclusions. If you wish a pulpy, watery potato use cold water, but if a dry, mealy, snowy ball that would delight the heart of Epicurus himself always use boiling water.

WEARING APPAREL.

The Tunic, the Toga and the Leather Dress of the Ancients.

Ancient wearing apparel was not cut to fit, as is our modern clothing. Having no definite shape of its own, it did not disguise the wearer's figure, and the grace and beauty of Greek drapery are dependent almost entirely on the perfect proportions of the figure beneath. The tunic worn by both Greeks and Romans was little, if at all, fitted to the wearer and when ungirded hung in folds all round, while the toga was little more than a sheet and was worn in all sorts of ways, according to the prevailing fashion. The Jews of old seem to have worn breeches, but the rest of their clothing seems to have been simply wrapped round them, for it was difficult for them to run or even walk fast without first "girding up their loins." The clothing of the northern races was probably always more of a fit than that of the southern, for they used leather, which does not lend itself to simple draping, but our ancestors probably wore an almost shapeless tunic belted at the waist. Another striking difference is found in the gradual monopoly by women of the ornamental element in dress. Once masculine dress was by far the most splendid, and woman, holding an absolutely subordinate social position, had to content herself with humbler attire. As she has won her way to freedom and equality she has annexed not only the beautiful, but the extravagant elements of costume and left man to content himself with a condition of colorless utility.

Fish Swallow Sand.

Captains of fishing smacks in the North sea have found that codfish at certain times of the year take sand into their stomachs as "ballast." This, it would appear, is done when the fish are about to migrate from the shallow water covering the southern banks of the North sea to the deeper water farther north. It has been observed that fish caught on the southern banks just before the migration begins and those caught in the northern waters after it is completed have sand in their stomachs and that the sand is discharged after the arrival of the fish at the southern banks on the return migration. In proof of this it is stated that the sand found in the fish often differs in color and quality from that of the bottom where they are caught.—Washington Post.

Chile and Andes.

Two ways, Chile and Chile, is the name of our South American neighbor written. Chile is the Spanish and Chilean form. The name is commonly explained as an old Peruvian word for snow, the allusion being to the Andes. But "Chili" has also been identified as a native South American word, "chili," meaning cold, which would make it really the "chilly" country. As to the meaning of "Andes," there is plenty of choice. The word has been variously interpreted as signifying the haunt of the tapir, the region of copper, the home of the Anti tribe and the site of the "Andenes," Spanish gardens on the mountain terraces.

Necessarily.

Dinglebats—The oculist charged you $5 for taking a grain of sand out of your eye? That's pretty steep, isn't it? Himpsey—I thought so till I looked over his bill. It was for "removing foreign substances from the cornea," and, of course, that costs more.—Chicago Tribune.

Would Please Dick.

Mrs. Henpeck—If you marry Dick, you need never expect me to come to see you. Daughter—Just say that into the gramophone, won't you, please? Mrs. Henpeck—What for? Daughter—I want to give it to Dick as a wedding present.

Easily Remedied.

Bank Clerk—This check, madam, isn't filled in. Madam—Isn't what? Bank Clerk—It has your husband's name signed to it, but does not state how much money you want. Madam—Oh, is that all? Well, I'll take all there is.

Rest the Stomach

Nothing will relieve indigestion that doesn't digest the food, itself, and give the stomach a perfect rest.

You can't reasonably expect that any weak stomach will regain its strength and get well when it is compelled to do the full work that a sound stomach should do.

You wouldn't expect a sick horse to get well when it is compelled to do a full day's work every day of the week.

Your stomach must have rest.

But it isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It will digest all of the food you eat regardless of the condition of your stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

For Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Flatulence, Headache, Water Brash, Belching of Gas, Nausea, Gastritis, Heartburn and all troubles arising from indigestion and non-assimilation of the food.

I had dyspepsia in its worst form; was reduced in weight to 118 pounds. After using two and one-half bottles of Kodol, I was completely cured and restored to my usual weight of 145 pounds. J. LUTHER JOHNSON, Cleburne, Tex.

The supreme court has declared that "sun time" governs in the courts. With some courts any old time appears to be the rule.

Senator Culberson emphatically declared his opposition to government ownership of railroads at the Dallas legislative banquet. The ownership proposition was derailed, for some years at least, on the first trial trip in Madison square garden.

Fort Brown at Brownsville, Texas, recently abandoned as an army post, following the trouble with negro troops, will probably be the site for the proposed Pan-American college. Congress will be asked to donate the property for this purpose. The Texas delegation in congress will be petitioned to take steps in the matter. The co-operation of Congressman Slayden, who is on the military committee, and Congressman Garner is already assured and it is certain that there will be no opposition from any of the other Texas congressman or senators.

Some of the well meaning editors of state papers are discussing the question of two or more A. and M. Colleges located in different sections of the state. Such discussions evidently arise from an imperfect knowledge or understanding of the A. and M. College and its needs. Every dollar for the college plant should be added to the sum total or present equipment and expended at the present site of the school. It would be the height of folly to duplicate—to have several small schools when one great industrial university is not only possible but assured. What is needed in various sections of the state are a sufficient number of experiment stations, operated under the directions of the College, where special work peculiar to the locality may be pursued. The equipment and faculty for teaching agriculture and the various branches of engineering in their general application can be enlarged to meet demands and most economically maintained in one institution which is permanently located at College Station. A great deal more reason exists for dividing the state of Texas than for two or more A. and M. Colleges, and the Eagle does not believe the legislature will ever be short sighted enough to consider such a policy.

THE TROLLEY LINE.

As will be seen in the report of the meeting elsewhere, Mr. Kennedy's visit to Bryan yesterday practically settled all the important details of the contract for building the trolley line from Bryan to College. He appeared before the committee with the utmost fairness and frankness and conceded practically everything asked of him, and showing that he is anxious to get at the actual construction work. The committee has called a meeting of all the subscribers to the stock at Carnegie Library tonight at 8 o'clock, when the whole matter will be intelligently laid before them for consideration and action. The Eagle hopes that not only every subscriber, but every man interested in the welfare and development of Bryan and of the A. and M. College will be present. This is history making time in Bryan and every man who has a hand in it will have occasion to feel proud of the fact hereafter. Remember the hour and be sure to attend.

A FREE ENTERTAINMENT.

Dr. Butler requests the Eagle to announce that the public is cordially invited to attend the musical and oratorical recital at the Texas Woman's College tonight. There will be no charge for admission and a most excellent program of piano and vocal music and oratorical numbers will be given by the pupils. Dr. Butler desires to press the invitation in order that the people of Bryan and vicinity may go and see for themselves what the school is doing since it has become settled and organized in its new home.

MR. AUGUST SCHILL.

Mr. August Schill died at his home in this city yesterday morning at 1:30 o'clock after several weeks illness. He leaves a wife and three children, also his mother and two brothers, who are here from Brenham to attend the funeral. Mr. Schill came with his family to Bryan some months ago and was until he became ill an employee of the Water, Light & Power Co. He was a member of the Brenham lodge of Sons of Herman, and industrious and well liked by those who knew him. The Eagle extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

The funeral will be held from the home this afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment at the city cemetery. Members of the Sons of Herman will meet at their Lodge room at 1:30 p. m. to attend.

DIMMITT.

To the Bryan Eagle.

Dimmitt, Texas, Oct. 21.—Rain, sleet and snow. Today is the Missionary Baptist preaching day at Dimmitt, and as wife and I belong to that church and live nine miles from town, we arose early this morning to go to church, but on going out to feed I found it very cloudy and a fine mist falling which soon turned to sleet, then moderated some and began to snow. It is very cloudy and may come a good snow before it is done with. This is the first cold spell we have had. Potato vines are still green, and tomatoes in the garden continue bearing.

Something very much out of the ordinary for this county in the way of entertainment for children was given by your correspondent. It was an old time cotton picking and candy pulling. The cotton, and also the syrup of which the candy was made was raised here on my place. More than half the children had never picked cotton, and one young man, 22 years old, came just to see how cotton picking was done. At noon, just after dinner, the boys took to riding calves—boys from 9 to 18 years of age—that we will put against any boys of their age riding bucking calves.

Farmers who have not finished cutting feed will find same badly damaged by the cold. However, nearly all the rough feed in this community has been harvested. The corn crop is immense; I have as good corn as I ever raised in Peach Creek bottom.

Mr. W. M. Smith, who owns the largest orchard in Castro County, raised 2000 bushels of peaches this year and sold them at 50 cents to $1.00 per bushel. He also raised a large quantity of plums and cherries for the market. Mr. Smith has about 20 acres in an orchard and is putting out more trees every year. He also owns more than 250 head of high grade Hereford cattle. He says he expects to realize more on his fruit farm than from his herd of cattle. Many orchards are being put out in the county.

W. S. D.

will be 10 per cent short of last October in total cattle receipts.

Hog receipts last week were 41,000 head, an increase over the previous week, which furnished grounds for a decline of 5 to 10 cents, but a big decrease from same week last year gives promise of continued strong prices. Receipts of poor quality, but dealers expect more hogs soon, and a better grade. Run is 5000 today, market steady, to $6.32 1-2, bulk of sales $6.20 to $6.30, medium weights selling best; good heavies and light hogs about 5 cents below the others. Pigs $5.75 to $6.00.

THE MARKETS.

(Special to the Eagle)

Kansas City Stock Yards, October 22.—Three hundred and eighty-five cars arrived in the quarantine division last week, a big increase over the previous week, and twice as many as same week last year. The steers were better average quality than have been coming, and included some fed steers at $4.20 to $4.75. The market was steady each day during the week, possibly a shade lower Friday, and it was a good week for all hands. The run today is 78 cars, market strong and active, top steers $4.00, several lots from $3.60 to $3.90, including ten cars of Bishop steers from Elgin at $3.75—931 pounds. Only a few steers sell at $3.25 or less. Cows being $2.40 to $2.75, for bulk of sales, heavy calves $3.00 to $3.85, and not many coming to quarantine division. In the native division the run is 6000 less today than last Monday, market steady to strong. The supply of Kansas grass killing steers is growing smaller, and packers are paying 25 to 40 cents per cwt. more for that kind than two weeks ago, which also explains their readiness to take hold of quarantines. Colorado will send in a good many cattle yet, but the month of October

THE NEW VISIBLE

FOX

At Last a Perfect Visible Typewriter

The One Typewriter That Correctly Solves the Objections That Have Always Heretofore Been Made Against "Front Strike" Machines.

Visible writing has always been considered as desirable by practically all typewriter manufacturers, but the difficulties to be overcome in construction in order to secure durability have discouraged the very large adoption of these machines. The invention of the method of assembling the type bars as it is done in the Fox Visible has, however, made possible the use of a wide pivotal bearing in the type hanger, thus insuring the most perfect alignment at all times and a durability that is equal to that claimed for any "basket type" machine. In building this new model, we have all the advantage of the knowledge that has heretofore been considered as being impossible to secure in a visible writing typewriter. It is found only in the Fox and places the Fox Visible in a class by itself.

Here is a Short Description.

THE TYPE HANGER—The hanger has a pivot bearing 7-16 of an inch wide. This allows the use of a heavy type bar, providing an adjustable pivot bearing which takes up wear as it occurs, thereby giving a permanent alignment that is impossible to secure with a narrow bearing without adjustment, and avoiding the trouble caused where "forced alignment" is necessary. This is the feature that has heretofore been considered as being impossible to secure in a visible writing typewriter. It is found only in the Fox and places the Fox Visible in a class by itself.

TWO COLOR RIBBON—The ribbon movement on this machine is simply perfection. It reverses and oscillates automatically, requiring no attention from the operator from the time it is put on until worn out. When a two color ribbon is used, by simply touching a button on the keyboard the second color is secured instantly without raising the hand or even looking.

THE INTERCHANGEABLE CARRIAGE—The carriage is so constructed that it can be quickly removed and a carriage of different length substituted. One machine can be purchased with different sizes of carriages, thereby effecting a great saving over the ordinary method of buying a long carriage machine complete. The carriage is ball bearing and runs with a tension of only 1 lb.

PERFECT VISIBLE WRITING—The entire line is visible all the time.

THE KEY TENSION—The force required on the part of the operator to print a letter is only 2½ ounces. This is from 25 to 50 per cent. less than any other. It is a vital thing both from the operator's standpoint of less fatigue and the owner's of greater durability.

THE LINE LOCK—When the carriage reaches the end of a line, the keys lock and nothing more can be written until the release button is used or the carriage returned to begin a new line.

ALUMINUM KEY LEVERS—Key levers are made of aluminum. It is more expensive than steel or wood, but it is very much more desirable.

TABULATOR—The Fox ten stop decimal tabulator is attached when ordered, at slight additional expense. It is the only decimal tabulator in use on a visible typewriter.

Every feature on this machine has been tried out and demonstrated as successful on the Regular Models of the Fox. Unprejudiced experts have without hesitation pronounced the machine a marvel.

Ask your nearest typewriter dealer to show you this machine. If he cannot we will make it easy for you.

The regular models of the Fox are still the most perfect machines of their kind and their manufacture will be continued as before.

Miss Ruby Miller, nine years old, arrived yesterday from St. Louis, to make her home with her grandfather, Adolph Gerke of the Kurten community. The bright and pretty little miss made the trip all the way by herself, and although she wore a ribbon with her name and destination plainly written on it, she knew where she wanted to go and manifested a self confidence that is often lacking in adults when they get away from home. By some oversight, she was allowed to pass through Bryan on the early morning train yesterday, and so she came back from Navasota at 1:38 p. m. yesterday.

MAY BE MOODY.

the president will appoint Attorney General Moody to the vacancy on the supreme bench made vacant by the retirement of Associate Justice Brown.

GIRL GOES HOME.
Returns to Residence Practically Dressed Like a Man.

Birmingham, Oct. 25.—Miss Fannie Fennell, who so mysteriously disappeared from her home and who, it is believed by the police, was kidnapped, reappeared at her mother's home at midnight Wednesday night practically dressed in men's clothing. She does not remember anything that has taken place during the day. She says she recovered consciousness a short time before and found herself alone in a strange room, from which she fled. She can not locate the house and does not know how she managed to find her mother's home.

Mrs. J. H. Slidbottom reported to the police Wednesday morning the mysterious disappearance of her eight-year-old daughter, Miss Fannie Fennell, from the family home at 729 North Twenty-first street. Mrs. Slidbottom believes that her daughter was chloroformed and kidnapped between midnight and 5 o'clock Wednesday morning. She retired as usual Tuesday night and slept in the bed and had left her clothes undisturbed on a chair, but the girl herself was missing. The mother said an odor of chloroform prevailed through the room.

Mrs. Slidbottom and daughter visited Denver last August, and after their return Miss Fennell, it is claimed, begun receiving letters from an unknown man, who said he had seen her first out west and had followed her to Birmingham. The writer professed his love and said he would kiss her if he did not get her. The letters have been turned over to the police, who are working on the case. It is said that a mysterious man in a hack visited the house twice during Tuesday night and a gate man at the union depot describes a young woman, much like Miss Fennell, who took the 5 o'clock train for Montgomery Wednesday morning.

CROKER ON TAMMANY.
"It is a Case of Giving a Dog a Bad Name," He Says.

Dublin, Oct. 25.—In an interview Richard Croker, referring to Tammany Hall and it is alleged bad reputation, said: "It is a case of giving a dog a bad name. If any one connected with the organization, however insignificant his position, does anything dishonorable, Tammany is blamed."

"The reformers never did anything for New York. The great bridges, the elevated railroad, the public buildings and everything are the work of Tammany. If there was corruption, why didn't the district attorney prosecute somebody? Tammany Hall has succeeded entirely on its merits. It is the most democratic institution in the world. If anything is wrong with it then something is wrong with the people themselves. It stands not only for the poor man, but also for the foreigner newly landed on American shores. It believes, as against the Republican party, that the foreigners should have the benefits of the American constitution as soon as possible. It stands all around for equal rights."

Washington, Oct. 25.—The president received Father W. H. Ketcham, the director of the bureau of Catholic Indian missions, who introduced a small delegation of Oklahoma missionary priests.

All classes of employees, both skilled and unskilled, will benefit.

Spoke in Arkansas.
Fort Smith, Oct. 25.—Vice President Fairbanks delivered brief speeches at Greenwood, Jenny Lind, Paris, Central City and Lavaca, Ark.

SENATORS SPOKE.

Messrs. Culberson and Bailey Both Addressed Audience.

Dallas, Oct. 25.—The banquet tendered nominees for the legislature was largely attended. Hon. Clarence Osley of Fort Worth was toastmaster. Senator Culberson sat on his right and Senator Bailey on his left.

Hon. R. W. Hall of Vernon, who was to have been toastmaster, was unable to attend.

In his remarks, Senator Culberson declared the future of the Democratic party depends upon its adherence to fundamental principles. Among other things he said that government ownership of railroads would not only work a dangerous centralization of power both in the state and Federal governments, creating millions of partisan offices and controlling by party machinery at the outset more than $15,000,000 of wealth, but this measure imposes the most advanced and aggravated form of paternalism ever offered under a free government (applause), with the exception, perhaps, of its companion Populist measure, the sub-treasury. (Great applause.)

"Much as I respect and admire and honor—and love some who advocate this dogma, yet I can not concede that the future of the Democratic party lies along that path. (Cheers and cries of "Good, Good!") It could only lead to party stultification and to the corruption, subversion and destruction of its vital principles." (Applause.)

In his response to "Railroad Regulation," Bailey asserted that there was little choice between monopoly and socialism. He paid high tribute to the late Governor Hogg. This was brought out by some one on the far side of the hall yelling out during a pause in the speech, "Hurrah for Hogg!" Immediately taking notice of this, the senator remarked that those who thought they could affront him by such a remark were sadly mistaken. Although he had not said it during ex-Governor Hogg's lifetime, for fear his attitude might be misrepresented, he wanted to say now that Governor Hogg and himself had understood each other perfectly and, he added, both were too loyal Democrats and too good Texans to be fighting each other when there was a common foe requiring the attention of both of them. This statement drew forth great and prolonged applause.

Senator Clark of Arkansas was not present and Colonel Thomas M. Campbell was detained at the bedside of a dying friend in Palestine.

Chairman Carden, Hon. Pat Neff and others also responded to toasts.

Governor Vardaman made a short address of welcome and a reply was made by Governor Deneen. The soldiers were given a chance to stretch their legs after a long ride from Chicago and marched up Capitol street. They were given an enthusiastic reception by the citizens, which was quite in contrast with the invasion of the city by Illinois troops forty-five years ago. The party left for Vicksburg.
